SUMMARY
Struck out—Schupp 2; Anderson 3; Tesreau 1; Faber 1; bases on balls—off Schupp 1; Perrit 1; Tesreau 1; Faber 1; stolen bases—Eddie Collins 2; Jackson; double plays—Herzog to Holke; Faber to Weaver to Gandil; Felsch to Eddie Collins to Weaver; Weaver to Gandil. Umpires, Klem and Rigler.

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—Chicago again humbled their New York rivals in the second game of the World's Series by the score of 7 to 2. Chicago made 14 hits against New York's 8. Faber pitched the entire game for Chicago while New York was forced to use four pitchers during the game, Schupp, Anderson, Perrit and Tesreau. Each team made one error. The game was played Sunday before a capacity attendance.

New York's downfall came in the fourth inning when Chicago landed on her for five runs. The fireworks were started by Weaver who got an infield hit. Schalk singled to right field advancing Weaver to second. Faber fouled to Zimmerman at third, but Liebold singled to center scoring Weaver and sending Schalk to third. McMullen hit a Texas leaguer and Schalk scored.

At this point McGraw yanked Anderson, who had relieved Schupp in the second when the latter had walked two men, filling the bases. Perrit was now sent in to hold the Chicago batters. Eddie Collins, the next man up, singled to right field, scoring Liebold, McMullen and Collins both advanced on the throw to the plate to catch Liebold. McMullen and Collins both scored when Jackson singled to right field. Jackson was caught at second when Herzog nailed Felsch's line drive.

Each team made two runs in the second inning. New York first came to bat and Fletcher, the first man up, was caught at 1st. Robertson sent a roller down to second and beat it out. Holke singled over second and Robertson advanced one. McCartney singled to right and Robertson scored. Schalk, catcher for Chicago, dropped Jackson's throw-in and Holke scored on the error. Schupp and Burns both went out at 1st.

Umpires for World's Series.

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—The umpires appointed for the World Series of 1917 are William J. Klem and Charles H. Rigley, National League and Frank O'Loughlin and William G. Evans, American League. All of these have had considerable experience as arbiters of play in the World's Championship contests. This quartet worked together in 1912 when the Boston Red Sox defeated the Giants in the memorable eight game series and again in 1915 when the Boston Americans won four out of five games from the Philadelphia Nationals. Now for the third time they have been chosen to act together, calling balls and strikes; making decisions at the bases, and watching the foul lines, each in his turn as the series progresses.

Klem's first experience in the big baseball feature was in 1903 and since that time only two World's Series flags have been won, without his having been connected with the games in his official capacity. The exceptions were the battles of 1910 and last year. So that the present series are the eighth in which he will have taken an active part.

O'Loughlin ante-dates Klem in World Series history as he was one of the umpires in the Chicago series of 1906 when the White Sox beat the Cubs four out of six games. He officiated again in the 1909 series between Pittsburgh and Detroit when the Pittsburgh Nationals shut out the Tigers in the seventh game and won the championship. Then in 1912 and 1915 he was active and this is his fifth appearance in the World's Series.

Rigler also is officiating for the fifth time in a world's championship struggle. In 1910, together with Connolly, O'Day and Sheridan, he umpired the series between the Athletics and Chicago Nationals. In 1913 he was appointed for the New York-Philadelphia series, while in 1912 and again in 1915, he and the other three umpires who are officiating this year worked together.

Evans had his initial experience as a World Series umpire in 1909, when he worked with Johnstone, Klem and Evans, in the Pittsburgh-Detroit series. Then again in 1912 and 1915 he and his partners of this year made up the umpiring staff, which has been reappointed for a third term.

UNITED STATES LEADS THE WAY FOR URUGUAY

Latter Hands German Minister His Passports After Congress Meets.

VIER'S STATEMENT

Claims Uruguay Has Suffered No Offenses from the German Empire.

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay, Oct. 8.—Uruguay has severed relations with Germany, giving as her excuse a desire to assist the United States in the cause of justice and democracy for small nationalities.

A presidential decree was issued announcing the rupture, following a vote in favor of it by the Chamber of Deputies. The vote stood 74 to 23.

The German minister has been handed his passports.

President Viers in his message to Parliament declared that the Uruguayan government had not received an indirect offense from Germany, but it was necessary to espouse the defenders of justice and democracy for the small countries, otherwise no nation not able to protect and defend itself would be left free from the domination of powerful and ruthless nations bent on conquest.

GIVES BRITAIN CREDIT

Washington, Oct. 8.—The government has advanced England another credit of $15,000,000.

STRIKE CONDITIONS WILL BE TAKEN UP AT MEETING TONIGHT

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 8.—Action on a proposed general strike of 150 unions affiliated with the San Francisco labor council, in sympathy with the striking platform of the United Railroads here for higher wages, working conditions and recognition of the unions, will be taken up at a meeting of the council tonight.

BE INTERNAL PRESSURE ON THE GERMANS

Imperial Government May Be Forced to Issue a Full Statement Very Soon.

PEOPLE ARE RESTLESS

Annexation and Indemnities Seem to Be the Vital Issue at Stake Now.

DATELESS.—External pressure to force Germany to state her war aims having failed, internal conditions at the present time threaten to compel the government to issue a full statement regarding its aims. Chancellor Michaelis must face the government's critics in the Reichstag this week, probably today, in order to discuss the government's desire.

It is expected the debate will center on the changes that bureaucracy and army plans have been favoring in furthering a pan-German scheme for annexations and indemnities.

Germany's Enemies Cannot Be Crushed.

Amsterdam, Oct. 8.—It is reported that Goethien, a progressive member of the Reichstag, informed his party committeemen that although the military situation was satisfactory, there was no hope of crushing Germany's forces on land. He said submarines had sunk 7,000,000 tons of shipping, but that there was no disposition towards peace on the part of England as yet, so far as could be observed.

TRAIN WITH BALL MAGNETS COLLIDES AND CREW INJURED

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 8.—The Pennsylvania Limited collided today with a freight train near Beaver Falls. Members of the National Baseball Commission were aboard enroute from Chicago to New York, but were not injured. Four members of the engine crews were badly hurt. Wreckage from the freight train is blocking the track.

SEATTLE STRIKE OFF.

SEATTLE, Oct. 8.—The shipbuilding workers yesterday voted to call off the strike which was ordered for the purpose of aiding the striking lumber men. The shipbuilding workmen insisted that the shipbuilders should use only timber that was made in mills using timber from logging camps which have the 8-hour day. In spite of the order, however, only about 700 men returned to work today. Ten thousand men are still out. More are expected to resume work shortly.

NEGROES RELEASED.

FORT BLISS, Oct. 8.—Thirteen hundred and fifty-six negro soldiers held in the stockade here since the Houston riots Aug. 23d, have been ordered released and left to join their regiments. It was found that they took no part in the rioting.

CONGRESS ADJOURNS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—President Wilson was present when Congress adjourned Saturday afternoon. Most of the lawmakers are hurrying home. A few will remain several days to finish up business.

ALLIES ARE IN DECISIVE ASCENDANCY

Their Terrific Drive Threatens the Entire German Naval Bases.

ZEEBRUGGE IN DANGER

Secretary of War Baker Gives a Review of the Recent Fighting.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—The decisive ascendancy of the Allies in the supreme test of strength in the terrific struggle that has been in progress on the bloody fields of Flanders is clearly shown in the results according to a statement given to The Associated Press by Secretary of War Newton D. Baker reviewing the operations of the last week.

The secretary says while it may be premature to assert that the British offensive has forced a definite decision over the Germans, at the same time the victories of the past fortnight are not only threatening the German submarine bases on the Belgian coast, but are conclusive indications of the superiority of the Allies.

With favorable weather conditions, Secretary Baker thinks the recent great victories will be repeated and the lines of the Allies extended. In the review the Secretary points out the fact that the British are able to stop all German counter attacks, after the first drive, while massing troops for a second greater smash at the Teutonic lines.

Slowly and irresistibly the Allied drive into the heart of the German line is sweeping on. The Germans are now reeling beneath the great shock while the Allies are ready to deliver another blow. The Secretary in his review continues: "The full success of the present operations means that the Belgian coast with its numerous submarine bases will become untenable to the enemy. Seebrugge and the Ostend system of canals leading out of Bruges are threatened.

"Contributing factors to the success of the Allies are air control and shell supplies."

The review concludes by saying that reports from the Russian front are also more encouraging.

PRESIDENT NOT TO ENJOY ANY VACATION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—President Wilson does not plan to take any vacation or speaking tours between now and Christmas. He will spend the time quietly here, directing and co-ordinating war work. He has declined several pressing invitations to speak.

COUNTY ATTACK FAILS LONDON, Oct. 8.—The Germans today unsuccessfully attacked the British east of Ypres.
